

Alex McCalla – 2005-06 Panunzio Award Nominee

The systemwide Constantine Panunzio Distinguished Emeriti Award, consisting of a cash prize and certificate, recognizes the outstanding scholarly work and/or educational service (such as service in professional, University, Academic Senate, emeriti, departmental, or editorial posts or committees) performed by a University of California emeritus or emerita, in the humanities or social sciences, since his or her retirement. Two emerita from UC Davis have received the Panunzio award – Emmy Werner, Department of Human and Community Development in 1999/00 and Sarah Hrdy, Department of Anthropology, in 2002/03.

The 2005-06 nominee from the UC Davis campus is Alexander F. McCalla, Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics. Professor Emeritus McCalla has an exemplary record of outstanding scholarly work and educational service since his retirement in 1994 and is internationally recognized for excellence in research, teaching, and service to the campus, the community, and at the national and international level.

He is a leading authority on the economics of agricultural trade, agricultural policy and is recognized as one of the world's foremost thinkers in rural development and world food development. Publications since retirement include "Agricultural Trade Conflicts and GATT," "Prospects for Food Security in the 21st Century: with Special Emphasis on Africa", "The Long Arm of Industrialized Countries: How Their Agricultural Policies Affect Food Security", and "Liberalizing Agricultural Trade: Will it Ever Be a Reality". He is also concerned with domestic issues and in 2004 published "Whither California Agriculture: Up, Down, or Out? Some Thoughts About the Future."

In 1994 Dr. McCalla joined the World Bank as Director of Agriculture and Natural Resources. Alex revitalized Rural Development as an essential activity in reducing poverty worldwide. The outcome was the World Bank's first Sector Strategy: Rural Development from Vision to Action. In 1997, McCalla was confirmed as Director and Chair of the Rural Development Sector Board. Ian Johnson, World Bank Vice President and Head of the Environmentally and Socially Sustainable Development Network addresses the contributions that McCalla made in the period from 1994 to 1999. He states "During his tenure he played a major role in redefining agricultural strategy in the Bank; overseeing a major strategic work program including a new Bank Strategy for the sector as well as a number of important technical papers. He was instrumental in bringing our agricultural work in alignment with our work on natural resource management, especially forestry and water resources. Alex was seen both inside and external to the Bank as a world leader on agricultural issues." Dr. McCalla reached the World Bank mandatory retirement age in 1999, after five years of service, and returned to UC Davis.

After returning to UC Davis from the World Bank, Dr. McCalla taught a general education course, the Economic Basis of the Agricultural Industry for four years. According to Richard Howitt, Chair of the Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics the faculty were very pleased to have Alex's extensive national and international reputation, experience, and expertise in the classroom. The student evaluations were excellent. Neal Van Alfen, Dean of the College of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences states in his nomination letter, "Dr. McCalla's teaching record is truly remarkable. The knowledge he brings to our students is abundantly needed. His expertise is warranted in the Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics where he continues to actively contribute to the departmental teaching program".

In addition to research and teaching since retirement, Dr. McCalla was extensively involved in educational service activities on the campus, in the community, with his professional organizations, and nationally and internationally. He has served the UCD Academic Senate as a member of the Welfare Committee and as a member and Chair of the Senate's Emeriti Committee. He is currently a member of the Emeriti Association Executive Committee and serves as Chair of the Committee on Committees. In the Davis community, Dr. McCalla has been very active with the International House, an organization which serves both the University and the community by providing support and programs for international visitors, students and scholars. He established and Chairs the I-House Council of Advisors. Dr. Eric Bradford, President of I-House, states "Dr. McCalla's knowledge of community leaders and his ability to guide the efforts of a group to define a goal and work for its implementation are providing outstanding service to I-House. His international experience in key leadership positions with the World Bank and the CGIAR (the Consultative Group on International Agricultural Research) are proving uniquely valuable to this service".

In terms of professional association activities, Dr. McCalla is a member of the committee to plan the 100th anniversary of the American Agricultural Economic Association (AAEA) and has been invited by the President of the AAEA to review a proposal to change the governance of the AAEA Foundation. He chairs the committee to plan the 75th Anniversary of the Giannini Foundation for Agricultural Economics a University-wide foundation housed at UC Berkeley.

On the national level, Dr. McCalla is a founding member of the Board of Directors of the Donald Danforth Plant Science Center, based in St. Louis, MO and served on the Board of Directors of the National Center for Food and Agricultural Policy in Washington, DC from 1994-2004. Dr. McCalla has continued a high level of activity in the international arena. In 2002-2004 he led a review of a United Nations Inter-Agency Program established after the World Food Summit of 1996. The Food Insecurity and Vulnerability Information Mapping System (FIVIMS) was established to coordinate global efforts to anticipate food insecurity and reduce poor people's vulnerability to famine. In October, 2000 he became a trustee of the Centro Internacional de Mejoramiento de Maiz y Trigo (CIMMYT). Located in Mexico, CIMMYT is one of the original International Agricultural Research Centers under the umbrella of the Consultative Group on International Agricultural Research (CGIAR) devoted to genetic improvement in maize and wheat. In 2001 Dr. McCalla was elected Chair of the Board of Trustees. Dr. Jim Godfrey, Chair of the International Potato Center located in Peru, states "At the start of his tenure CIMMYT was experiencing difficulties with some large private sector contracts and in addition the Director General decided to leave. Alex took all this in stride and appointed a new Director General, introduced improved governance and reporting standards, set a clear vision, rigorously reviewed the science and has handed CIMMYT over to a new Chair in November 2005 in a better situation than when he was appointed." As Chair of the CIMMYT Board of Trustees, Dr. McCalla served as Vice Chair of the Committee of Board Chairs representing all 15 International Agricultural Research Centers, now known as Future Harvest Centers. He led the development of a highly successful orientation program for members of the CGIAR Board of Trustees. Dr. Pinstrop-Anderson, from Cornell University, Chair of the CGIAR Science Council, and a recipient of the World Food Prize, writes "Alex is highly regarded and much respected for his views and his impact within the CGIAR. He continues to serve as an informal advisor to many of us who are still within the CGIAR system, including myself. Alex has combined outstanding scholarly work in both research and teaching, with practical application for problem solving particularly related to agricultural and rural development in developing countries." Alex continues to serve as a consultant to the World Bank and the International Food Policy Research Institute, one of the CGIAR centers located in Washington, DC.

Since his retirement Alex has received numerous awards. In 1998 he was awarded the Degree of Doctor of Science, honoris causa by McGill University in Montreal, Canada and in 1999 he received the Doctor's Degree of Honor by the Georgian State Agrarian University in Tbilisi, Georgia. In 2000 he was honored as a Fellow of the Canadian Agricultural Economics Society. The American Agricultural Economics Foundation established the Alex F. McCalla Appreciation Club to recognize Dr. McCalla's life-time contributions to the profession. In 2004 he was honored as a Distinguished Scholar by the Western Agricultural Economics Association and he received the Distinguished Alumni Award from the University of Alberta.

Alex has made and continues to make outstanding contributions to his profession, the University and the world, with a vision of improving the quality of life of the rural poor in developing nations. The Emeriti Association and the campus believes that Dr. McCalla truly deserves the recognition provided by the Constantine Panunzio Distinguished Emeriti Award.

VIDEO RECORDS COMMITTEE (JOHN GOSS)

Video Record Interviews began in 1993. At the end of February this year, 282 interviews had been conducted. Through the Spring Quarter, 2005, three VHS tapes were made of each interview. (Please see next paragraph for the new recording, copying procedure). One tape was deposited in the Special Collections in the Shields Library which can be 'checked-out' at the Special Collections desk. The other two were given to the Interviewee and Interviewer.

A special S-VHS tape is made for the weekly showing (by permission of the interviewee) on Channel 15, Davis Community Television starting at 8:30 pm each Tuesday. Please see the Spotlight Section of the Davis Enterprise for the weekly Channel 15 Schedule. New interviewees are notified by Chair Goss of the date for the showing of his or her interview.

New digital tape copying equipment was purchased with Emeriti Association funds during May, 2005 and is now used to produce DVD records for the Shields Library, interviewee and interviewer. If needed by the interviewee or interviewer, VHS tapes or CDs can be provided.

A listing of the tape number, interviewee, interviewer and date of interview is available on the UC Davis Emeriti web site at:

<http://emeritiassociation.ucdavis.edu>

After signing onto the web site, click on Organization

And then click on:
Video History Project

To view the table, wait a few moments for the table to appear in the active window.

The interviews can be scheduled for Tuesday or Thursday at 10 AM or 11:30 AM in Room 65 in the basement of Mrak Hall from September through the following June. Interviews can be 50 to 55 minutes long. The interviewee selects his or her interviewer. The less than hour long interviews are recorded on digital camera caches. The camera records are read into computer files from which they are edited and copied onto video tapes, DVDs, or CDs.

The Committee invites all Emeriti who have not been interviewed to schedule their own interview with Jim DeVay (752-7310) Campus Phone or (753-2224) Residence Phone. He will provide the schedule for open interview dates.

The closest and most likely available parking for the interview days is the South Entry Parking Structure on the South side of the Mondavi Center. It is a 5 to 10 minute walk to the basement of Mrak Hall. Money is available in Room 65 for reimbursing round - trip taxi fare for interviewee and interviewer not having personal transportation, or if the distance to walk is burdensome. There are four (4) Handicapped Parking spaces in the parking area on the West side of Mrak Hall. Please call Chair Goss to arrange for a reserved Handicapped Parking space for the interview date.

My Thanks to all who have participated and are participating in this on-going Campus Project with special thanks to the current operating crew of Verne Mendel, Bob Leighton, Bill Breidenbach, Bill McCoy, and Jim DeVay.

The UCDEA Awards and Recognition Committee

The Awards and Recognition Committee will have three major responsibilities. One, it will receive and rank the nominations for the 2006-07 Constantine Panunzio Distinguished Emeriti Award. The award honors outstanding scholarly work or educational service performed by a University of California emeritus or emerita in the humanities or social sciences since retirement. The Dean of the Division of Humanities, Arts, and Cultural Studies, the Dean of Division of Social Sciences, and the Dean of the College of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences are asked to solicit nominations for this award from their appropriate constituent departments. Emeriti may also nominate a colleague they believe are qualified for the award. The initial nomination consists of a letter and a curriculum vitae and should be sent to the President of the Emeriti Association by November 10, 2006. The Awards and Recognition Committee will review the nominations and select one for developing a full supporting dossier including a cover letter outlining the nominee's distinctive scholarly work and/or educational service since retirement, a copy of his or her curriculum vitae, and supporting letters from leaders in the field commenting specifically on the nominee's achievements since retirement. The dossier is review by the Vice Provost for Academic Personnel and is submitted by the UCDEA president to Board of Directors of the Constantine Panunzio Distinguished Emeriti Award. The Board is located at UCLA. The award consists of a $5,000 cash award and a certificate.

Second, in view of the fact that the Panunzio Award is limited to emeriti in the humanities and social sciences, the Award and Recognition Committee will explore establishing a UC Davis Distinguished Emeriti Award which will be open to emeriti in all disciplines. The Committee will be considering the nature of the award, the criteria used to determine the recipient, the nomination process, and funding the award.

Third, the Awards and Recognition Committee will evaluate proposals for the Edward A. Dickson Emeriti Professorship and recommend a qualified individual(s) to the Vice Provost for Academic Personnel for appointment to the Professorship. The background and call for proposals are contained in this issue of EmeriTimes.

Current members of the Awards and Recognition Committee are Lee Baldwin, Chair, Sarah Hrdy, Jim Hutchinson, Jim Swinehart, and Emmy Werner.

CENTER FOR RETIREES RESOURCES AND RELATIONS

PROGRESS REPORT

The UC Davis Retiree Center Advisory Committee found the name "Center for Retirees Resources and Relations cumbersome and recommended a change to Provost Virginia Hinshaw. The newly approved name is the "UC Davis Retiree Center."

The Advisory Committee is participating in the recruitment of a full time Coordinator. The position has been classified as an Analyst II with a salary range of $3,157 - $5,367/Mo. A total of 42 individuals applied for the position and the Advisory Committee interviewed the top three candidates on April 21st. Administratively, the Coordinator will report to Leslye Hays, Executive Officer in the Chancellor/Provost's Office. It is hoped that the Coordinator will be on board in June. Housing will be in Mrak Hall, eventually in office space currently used by the Office of Research.

Edward A. Dickson Emeriti Professorship

Call for Proposals

Background

Edward A. Dickson served as a Regent of the University of California from 1913 to 1946, the longest tenure of any regent. He is credited with helping make the Los Angeles campus a reality. In 1955, Mr. Dickson presented the University with an endowment to support and maintain special annual professorships to be awarded to retired faculty members.

The award for retired faculty members is described in the gift document as follows:

“For the support and maintenance of special annual Professorships in the University of California to which shall be appointed by the President, with approval of The Regents, persons of academic rank who have been retired after service in the University of California and who shall receive such awards in addition to their retirement or pension allowances. Awards shall be made upon such conditions of service, research, or teaching as The Regents may require. Professorships so awarded shall be known as the Edward A. Dickson Emeriti Professorships.”

In 2003 the Office of the President divided the fund principal into ten separate endowments; one dedicated to each campus and delegated approval of the Dickson Emeriti Professorship to the Provost to simplify the administration of the award at each campus. The terms of the endowment payout must be used as specified by Mr. Dickson, which may include support for an annual award for one or more emeritus professor(s) for annual support for teaching, research, public service, and/or salary stipend of emeriti professors on recall. The payout available for expenditure in 2006-07 is approximately $10,000.

UCDEA President Hess, following consultation with the UCDEA Awards and Recognition Committee, proposed to Barbara Horwitz, Vice Provost for Academic Personnel, that the Awards and Recognition Committee issue a call for proposals for the Edward A. Dickson Emeriti Professorship, that the Committee evaluate the proposals, and recommend to Vice Provost Horwitz one or more emeriti/emerita for appointment to the Professorship. The proposal has been approved.

Initial Call for Proposals

The UCDEA Awards and Recognition Committee invites emeriti(a) to submit a proposal as to how he/she or they would use the Edward A. Dickson

Emeriti Professorship in accordance with the intent of the donor for support of teaching, research, and/or public service. For example, the funds could be used to explore new ideas in research, teaching and/or public service for which time and/or funds were not available while a member of the faculty. The Emeriti Professorship can be used for a salary stipend for emeriti(a) on recall. However, the Committee will place highest priority on proposals that clearly benefit the campus and for which funding is not available from other sources. Proposals should be concise, but with enough detail that the Committee will have sufficient information to evaluate the proposal. Funding up to $10,000 is available for the 2006-07 academic year. A budget should be provided indicating how the funds would be used with brief justification for categories such as salaries, supplies, and travel. Proposals should be submitted to the UCDEA Awards and Recognition Committee, Academic Senate Office, Voorhies Hall, no later than June 30, 2006. The Committee will evaluate the proposals and a meritorious proposal(s) will be submitted to Vice Provost Horwitz for approval. The Edward A. Dickson Emeriti Professorship would be started on September 1, 2006 and end on August 31, 2007. A report of accomplishments that have resulted from the Professorship will be requested at the end of the appointment. .

Future Calls for Proposals

The Committee on Awards and Recognition will review the process used this year, and based on the response, may develop more specific guidelines. For the initial call, the Committee wanted to provide as much opportunity for innovation as possible. First year recipient(s) will be eligible to apply for an additional year of funding, but the proposal would be in competition with all new proposals.

INVITATION TO GIVE A FRESHMAN SEMINAR

Provost Virginia Hinshaw invites you to participate in the Freshmen Seminar Program. As the size of our campus increases, it is especially important that new students have a chance to interact with a faculty member in a small group learning situation. Freshman Seminars present a special opportunity for Emeriti to share their knowledge and experiences on a topic that they particularly enjoy and substantially enhance the educational experience of new students.

The seminars can be delivered as a 1- or a 2-unit course. The 1-unit course will be offered for 10 hours and the 2-unit course will be offered for 20 hours during the academic quarter. Enrollment in these seminars is limited to 20 students.

As an added incentive to participate, the Provost's Office offers instructional research support in the amount of $1,500 for a 1-unit seminar and $2,000 for a 2-unit seminar. The funds will be transferred to your home department. Emeriti are also eligible to apply for a mini-grant to defray expenses associated with conducting the class, up to a maximum of $500.

If you are interested, information is available on the TRC web site including an online application: <http://trc.ucdavis.edu/trc/freshSem/call.html>. VOLUNTEERS NEEDED TO DEVELOP A FACULTY HANDBOOK

Dan Simmons, Chair of the Academic Senate has requested the UC Davis Emeriti Association to develop a Faculty Handbook. The Emeriti Association Executive Committee voted at its January 23, 2006 meeting to accept the request. The Executive Committee members believe that faculty, especially new faculty, should be knowledgeable of the rights, privileges, and obligations as members of the Davis Division of the Academic Senate. If you have an interest in participating in this important project, please contact Professor Emeritus Alex McCalla, Chair of the UCDEA Committee on Committees. Alex's phone number is 752-1529 and his email address is alex@primal.ucdavis.edu.

PRESTIGIOUS SCHOLARSHIP REQUEST

TO: UC Davis Emeriti Faculty

RE: Prestigious Scholarship Information Request

Dear Colleagues:

The campus is interested in creating a database of UC Davis emeriti faculty who have received prestigious national or international awards and/or who are willing to mentor and support students during the application process for these types of awards.

I believe that our emeriti faculty are a great resource to our undergraduates in their efforts to win such awards. For example, two years ago, a UC Davis senior won a Marshall Scholarship to support her studies in International Relations at Oxford University in England. Last fall, two UC Davis undergraduates were invited to interview for the Rhodes Scholarship. Their selection for the interview process indicates that UC Davis students are able to compete for prestigious scholarships. In these cases, the faculty played an important role in mentoring the students.

Our emeriti faculty possess a wealth of knowledge and experience with many prestigious national scholarships (e.g., Fulbright, Goldwater, Marshall, Mellon, Mitchell, Phi Beta Kappa, Rhodes, Truman, Udall and Wilson). At the present time, we do not have an adequate system for identifying emeriti faculty who have earned prestigious national scholarship recognition during their undergraduate and graduate studies and/or who are interested in assisting our undergraduates in these efforts. With this goal in mind, we have developed a short survey for each emeriti faculty member to provide information about their scholarship backgrounds. I am requesting that you complete the enclosed short survey by June 1, 2006 and return it to:

Carrie Devine, Coordinator Prestigious National Scholarships and Fellowships
 Davis Honors Challenge
 164 Kerr Hall
 University of California, Davis
 Davis, CA 95616

I appreciate your assistance and hope that whether or not you have received such prestigious awards, you will consider sharing your experiences by mentoring our outstanding UC Davis undergraduates. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Thank you for considering this request.

Sincerely,

Fred E. Wood
 Interim Vice Provost—Undergraduate Studies
